

Thank you for checking out a Discovery & Exploration Backpack!
We hope that this backpack and the included tools will provide an opportunity to learn something new while exploring Arizona's many outdoor recreational opportunities... or even your own backyard!

Please read the important information below before beginning your outdoor adventure!

Rockhounding Backpack

1. Please clean and return the backpack and all contents in the same condition that you received them to avoid fees.
2. Use the checklist below to ensure that all items are accounted for at check-in:
  - Backpack
  - Books:
    - Arizona Rocks & Minerals: A Field Guide to the Grand Canyon State by Bob Lynch and Dan R. Lynch
    - Best Easy Day Hikes: Phoenix by Stewart M. Green
    - National Geographic Pocket Guide to Rocks and Minerals of North America by Sarah Garlick
    - Rockhounding Arizona: A Guide to 75 of the State's Best Rockhounding Sites by Gerry Blair
  - Adventure Tools:
    - Binoculars
    - Compass
    - Flashlight
    - Sifting Pan
    - Hand Shovel
    - Jewelers Loupe
  - Rockhounding Informational Binder:
    - Leave No Trace Outdoor Ethics Card
    - Solar & Crank LED Flashlight Instructions
    - Binocular Instructions
    - Compass Instructions
    - Thunderbird Conservation Park Trail Rating Guide
    - Glendale Trail System with Thunderbird Conservation Park Guide
    - Arizona State Parks & Trails Guide
    - Bike Ways Map

(More Information on Back)

3. Survey - Please be sure to provide feedback on your backpack experience by completing the survey included in the front pocket of this binder.
4. Free Arizona State Parks Pass (front binder pocket) – Keep this pass and use it to explore one of Arizona’s amazing state parks (for a limited time while supplies last)!

This project is supported by the Arizona State Library, Archives & Public Records, a division of the Secretary of State, with federal funds from the Institute of Museum and Library Services.